BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA

SCOPE OF THE AGREEMENT	SIGNING	ENTRY INTO FORCE	VALIDITY	COMMENTS
From the technical/legal point of view, there is no Agreement for Visa Exemptions with this country. According to information from our Embassy in 2010, the authorities of this country apply specific treatment for Cuban citizens (we have no official document in Minrex files from the Government of Bosnia-Herzegovina vouching for this). The authorities of this country have never shown any interest in applying the Agreement for Visa Exemptions that we had with the former Yugoslavia. It is a mistake for us to assume that this agreement is in force between the two countries.				Treatment applied by Bosnia - Herzegovina authorities on Cuban citizens from 2010: Visa Exemption to enter the territory and stay for up to 90 days, for Cuban citizens holding diplomatic and official passports. For reciprocity in bilateral relations we should apply the same.

The regulation entered into force last 10 March 2016. Visa exemptions are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1- Visa exemptions are authorized for 20 days from the date of entry into Indonesia. 2- Visa exemptions do not apply for journalists. 3- Visa exemptions cannot be extended or changed for any other type of visa or stay permit. 4- Travellers must have a passport that has at least 6 months of validity, going past the duration of the planned stay in the country and the return, or they must have a plane ticket for continuing travel when they enter 5- In certain circumstances, for reasons related to national security and public health, the government of Indonesia may

				suspend visa exemptions for certain countries. This unilateral decision by Indonesia means that all Cuban citizens travelling to Indonesia holding any type of valid Passport with at least 6 months of validity remaining and fulfilling all the other requirements explained above may enter and stay in Indonesia for 30 days. There is no Agreement on visa exemptions in force between Cuba and Indonesia. The Agreement between the Government of the republic of Cuba and the Government of the republic of Indonesia on visa exemptions for holders of diplomatic and official passports, signed in Havana on 26 March 2003, expired on 17 March 2015. Therefore, this decision of the Government of Indonesia only applies to Cuban citizens travelling to Indonesia and not vice versa.
